Why Mauve?

Mauve Group are the original disrupters in the field.

When Mauve started in 1996, there were no other organisations offering solutions like ours -

Mauve's founders acted as the initial test cases for their own services. We are proud to be pioneers and forward-thinkers in the world of work.

Mauve moves away from middle men – we have our own companies in 50+ countries out of our 140+ global location network:

Mauve has avoided the “middle-man” business model of many of our competitors; we operate our services through our own companies and our own employees, reducing cost, risk and links in the chain.

Mauve is second to none in its staff retention rates:

At Mauve, our people are our central focus. Our expert workforce boasts longevity, commitment and enthusiasm – employees within every department have achieved 10 or 20 years' outstanding service.

Mauve makes global seem local with excellent response times:

Mauve's strategic office hubs offer peace of mind that no matter where your employees are in the world, there is support stationed and ready to make them feel at home.

Mauve is proud of its specialist partner network:

When specific and localised information is needed, we can call upon our growing global network of on-the-ground partners that are experts in their field and thoroughly due-diligence checked.

Mauve ensures every customer feels like an
